MARCEL-HABERT CONVICTED.

Sentenced by High Court to Five Years Banishment.

Paris, Feb. 21.—In the Senate, sitting as a high court, to-day, Deputy Marcel-Habert, who had been condemned to life imprisonment to banishment at the time of the funeral of President Faure, was sentenced to five years' banishment. The fine of 10 francs, which he had to pay, was remitted. His sentence was served by means of the Marson system.

He said the announcement that the American Navy had found another ship was untrue.

The chairman dilated on what might have happened at Kimberley and Lydiard, that the War Office let the company's assistants go earlier.
